National Board of Accreditation (NBA) was originally constituted in September 1994, in order to assess the qualitative competence of educational institutions from Diploma level to Post-Graduate level in Engineering and Technology, Management, Pharmacy, Architecture and related disciplines.

The vision of NBA is “to be a world class accrediting agency by ensuring highest degree of credibility in assurance of quality and relevance of professional education and come to the expectations of its stake-holders viz. academicians, corporate, educational institutions, government, industry, regulators, students and their parents”.

Mission of NBA is working with the Mission, “to stimulate the quality of teaching, self-evaluation and accountability in higher education, which help institutions realize their academic objectives and adopt teaching practices that enable them to produce high quality professionals and to assess and accredit the programs offered by colleges and/or institutions imparting technical and professional education.”.

The following are the broad objectives of NBA

- To periodically conduct evaluation of technical institutions or programs on the basis of guidelines, norms and standards specified by it.
- To develop quality conscious systems of technical education where excellence, relevance to market needs and participation by all stakeholders are prime and major determinants.
- To dedicate for building a technical education system, as facilitators of human resources, that will match the national goals of growth by competence, contribution to economy through competitiveness and compatibility with societal development.
- To provide the quality benchmarks targeted at global and national stockpile of human capital in all fields of technical education.
